

THE NORTHERN NECK LAND CONSERVANCY

Presents:

Preservation of Farm Lands

through

Conservation Easements

The Northern Neck Land Conservancy (NNLC) assists landowners interested in preserving their farms, timber stands, and natural areas as protected open spaces. The NNLC works to insure that landowners have the necessary tools and resources.

- Bill Armstrong, Board Member, will explain the conservation easement process, services available to the farming community with an overview of the conservation process, including the financial benefits
- Lawrence Latane, NNLC President, will discuss his experience of conserving his property Blenheim Farm, in Westmoreland County and Stuart Ashton, Vice President, will speak about Waterloo Farm, his property in King George County
- Elizabeth Friel, Executive Director, will field questions and answers

Wednesday, January 31, 2018 at 6pm

Call 804-462-0979 for more information

All are welcome, refreshments provided

To be held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church

5486 St. Pauls Road
King George, Virginia 22485

Future forums will be scheduled for Lancaster, Richmond, Westmoreland and Essex Counties

HYPERLINK
"<http://www.nnconserve.org>"
www.nnconserve.org
nnlandconservancy@gmail.com
804-462-0979

8327 Mary Ball Road
PO Box 125
Lancaster, Virginia 22503